

To the Student:

There is one technical detail involving insurance. Your insurance coverage for any personal damages or injury will come from your volunteer organization or through your provincial health insurance coverage. Canadian University College/Parkview Adventist Academy is only responsible for providing your scholarship on your enrolment in September, but it is not responsible for any aspect of your volunteer activity. Therefore, a requirement for earning this scholarship is that you sign the following waiver before beginning your volunteer activity.

WAIVER

I understand that the only involvement of Canadian University College/Parkview Adventist Academy in any volunteer assignment I do to earn a CUC/PAA Service Scholarship is in the provision of the scholarship after I have completed the community service work, and I agree to hold harmless the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventist, the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada, and Canadian University College/Parkview Adventist Academy for any personal damages or injury whatsoever that I may experience in the pursuit of said scholarship through volunteer community service activity.
